Cornhusker Public Power District customers give $3,875 to help their communities

Cornhusker Power Goodwill Fund trustees awarded $3,875 to 15 organizations at the November 2 meeting.

Cornhusker Public Power District CEO/GM Clay Gibbs said, “Since the program’s inception in 1999, over $250,000 has been distributed to a variety of organizations. These organizations are doing great things in the community and we are very proud to be a part of it. Please consider rounding up your electric bill and join us in making a difference in your community.”

In Cedar Rapids, Cedar Rapids Community Club received $500 for holiday lights for Main Street; and St. John’s Quilting ladies (LWML) received $100 for quilt batting.

In Columbus, The Arc of Platte County received $200 for promotional items; Christ Lutheran School received $300 for science equipment; Columbus Area Arts Council, $200 for Art2Go supplies; Columbus Noon Rotary, $200 for books; CASA Connection, $200 for gifts for foster children; Peace Lutheran Youth Group, $75 for soup supper hamburger; and Shell Creek Elementary School, $300 for an author presentation.

In Genoa, Genoa Public Library received $200 for a gaming system; and Genoa Volunteer Fire Department received $400 for fire swatters.

In Howells, Howells Volunteer Fire Department received $500 for a training center.

In Leigh, St. Paul's Quilting group received $100 for quilt batting.

In Lindsay, Holy Family School Crisis Team received $300 for emergency totes.

In Spalding, Spalding Academy School received $300 for P.E. equipment.
